

Women and Ocean Workshop: Implementation of the SSF Guidelines and their gender dimension

Pre-Symposium Workshop, 30 June 2019, Voilà Hotel

Provisional Programme

09h00 Welcome by Dr. Jacqueline Uku, Chair of the WIOMSA Board and Kenya Marine and Fisheries Research Institute (KMFRI)

09h15 Dynamic self-presentation of participants

10h00 Presentation of WiMS by Veronica Bristol, Chair of WiMS, Seychelles, with the support of Meaghen McCord, Shark Conservancy, South Africa

10h30 Break

11h00 Explore good experiences around SDG14 at the national, regional and international level

12h30 Lunch break

13h30 Rounds of conversations about identifying ways and means to support the implementation of SDG 14 through the best available science and explore the social roles of women and men in this context

15h00 Break

15h30 Identify the most promising levers on which scientists and practitioners can collaborate for implementing the SSF Guidelines in the Western Indian Ocean

17h00 Closure